Biography:

Evan first began working at the University of Illinois in 2018 in the Office of Undergraduate Admissions as an Admissions Counselor where he traveled around the state of Illinois to advise perspective high schoolers who were interested in applying to the university. Evan then transitioned into the First-Year Review Coordinator role where he became much more involved in the application review process for applicants to the university. While serving in this office, as part of his Master's program, Evan co-presented research on how COVID-19 affected the college student experience.

Evan joined the Illinois Leadership Center (ILC) as an Assistant Director in the summer of 2022 where he currently oversees the i-Program seminars that focus on leadership practices. Additionally, Evan coordinates the annual Donaldson Leadership Retreat, hosted at Allerton Park, in the Fall. Evan finds the most enjoyment in his job knowing that he is giving students important tools they need to become better leaders in whatever direction life takes them.

When not working, Evan's favorite hobbies including going to concerts, practicing guitar, playing Dungeons and Dragons, listening to music and spending time with friends.
